

Contacts: Joe Moscheo, III - Tennessee State Fair
615-862-8980
Randy Pomeroy - Pomeroy Marketing/Communications
615-479-8305

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Presidents and Patriots Exhibit Comes to the 2004 Tennessee State Fair September 10-19, 2004

Nashville, TN—September 2, 2004— The Tennessee State Fair is here September 10th thru the 19th at the Nashville Fairgrounds. Don't miss the rides, food and fun, plus one powerful new exhibition, Presidents and Patriots, an entertaining and educational exploration of the American Presidency and the democratic process.

Visitors get to see the human side of each President as they discover the dramatic events, human struggles, and even humorous moments and famous quotations that helped to shape our perceptions of who they were and are.

Learn about all 43 of our nation's presidents from George Washington to George W. Bush. Tour a full-sized replica of the Oval Office. See fascinating photos of the White House through all of its major renovations. Meet face to face with George Washington and Abraham Lincoln. See first lady china patterns, clothing, historic artifacts & reproductions, beautiful murals of some of the most famous rooms in the White House, and other great items. Interactive displays include an active voting experience.

The exhibit is free you're your paid admission to the fair.

It's true blue Red White and Moo family fun! It's only here for 10 days, September 10th through the 19th! Admission is $8 adults, $4 for seniors 55 up and $4 children 3 thru 12. Children 2 and under are just a quarter. Parking on the fairgrounds is $3.00. For access or additional information call 862-8980.

Go to tennesseestatefair.org for complete details.